

Dr. Swan A. Montague - Healing THE DIRECT CONNECTION

Some of the Topics Covered in Healing Sessions

All sessions are tailored to the individual's particular needs.

Metaphysical Training/Mentoring

Understanding the nature of your everyday reality, how you are creating it and the causes of its effects.

Quantum Karma Clearing

Karmic patterns are unavoidably lived out until the karmic lessons have been fully learned, the debts been re-balanced, the dramas healed, and the patterns cleared.

Ill health/Imbalance Diagnostics & Healing

Nothing can exist in the physical without an underlying issue at spiritual, emotional, mental, energetic or psychic levels. These layers have to be cleared and healed in order to release and re-programme the body to optimum health and well-being.

Higher Soul Alignment & Embodiment

As the planet, and in fact our entire solar system, is currently undergoing a multi-dimensional ascension process, the higher you evolve, the greater levels of your higher soul can be embodied.

Destiny Reading & Alignment

Dr. Night White Swan Rose Monthaque has been given the keys to the Akashic Realm. She works with Christ, Mother Mary, Mary Magdalene and the ArcAngels as well as many masters of both East and West to bring through information from the highest level from past and future to assist you to step into your greatest destiny and facilitate that process with energetic alignment.

Chemical Poisoning Clearing

Clearing bodies and environments that are struggling to deal with the bombardment of chemical toxins, micro-wave and electrical pollution, corrupted food chain, pharmaceuticals, viruses, bacterial and fungal energies. These are often the underlying causes of ill health, dis-ease and imbalances, and clearing these from your system and/or environment can create fantastic healing results.

Rebalancing & Centring Children

Many children are way more sensitive than is realised and are being affected by many of the above, as well as by their family circumstances, the environmental challenges and their past life traumas and memories are often highly vivid and manifesting challenging consequences in their daily lives. They need healing and clearing to be able to cope better with life in this day and age which is speeding up and intensifying these issues.

Connecting to Your Divine Guidance.

Many people would love to be able to connect more easily and powerfully to their own divine guidance.

Dr. Night White Swan creates a quantum leap in connection and active intuition.

Multi-dimensional Constellation Clearing

You are intricately connected through space and time to your cosmic family soul group and return time and time again to work through patterns and dramas with those in, or connected to, your group. Healing these levels creates transformation in many relationships and frees up the energy for the relationship to move into more light and greater love, or be released.

Transforming Ancestral Lineage and DNA.

During and pre-conception as well as at birth, you are -in-formed by your ancestral lineage and your DNA, but as you evolve will find you need to move beyond these levels into more advanced cycles and DNA. patterning.

Trauma Healing

Traumas can leave deep imprints and programmes that re-cycle and are often re-perpetuated throughout your life if not healed and cleared.

Cellular Re-patterning

Past lives, traumas, powerful experiences and emotional shocks can leave a cellular imprint that keeps recycling the same drama until cleared, healed and re-patterned.

Creativity Activation

Dr. Night White Swan Monthaque's creativity is legendary and prolific. She is expert at inspiring, activating and aligning clients' creative energies and connections.

Emotional Intelligence Training

In order for issues to shift and transform emotional awareness and intelligence can be vital to let go of old patterns.

Higher Spiritual Awareness/Activation

Moving through challenges is really helped with an understanding of the spiritual process, causes and effects, initiations and illuminations and other underlying causes of dramas and growth opportunities.

Manifestation Alignment/Beyond The Law of Attraction

Frequently The Law of Attraction doesn't work for people. That is because manifestation often requires that karmic, emotional and spiritual patterns, addictions and dramas be cleared, healed and understood as the unconscious creates outside of itself in order to be recognised and healed. These and other issues that reside in the sub-conscious or unconscious will continue to surface until they have been raised into higher consciousness.

Ancient Vows & Contracts Clearing

Vows and contracts from past lives reactivate in later life-times and continue to hold you in a binding situation that may well be inappropriate in this life, unhealthy or limiting, and must be cleared through all levels in order to free up the soul to manifest anew reality.

Life Readings and/or Numerology)

A Life Reading covers pre-incarnational programming, through conception and birth to the present effects, and into future potential.

N.B. Readings always include energy work, re-alignment and healing.

Completing Archetypal/Initiatory Processes & Ancestral Drama Patterns

Initiations from past lives, archetypal realms and astral dramas are carried forward through lives, space and time and need completing or impeding to free up the soul in this life.

HOW IT WORKS

Sessions are not based on time but how long and how much energy is required for all that can be done - they are usually between 40mins – 1.5 hrs actively, however the major work continues passively for days and/or weeks after, and often will even start before active healing commences. The healing is continued in Dr. Swan's morning and evening healing meditations for as long as the duration of a course of treatments.

Eventually it is intended that the client progresses to learning self-healing.

A course of action is decided upon after initial assessment, agreed and paid up fully in advance.

Sessions are non-refundable (the healing work is always carried out and it is the client's responsibility to take responsibility for following guidance, keeping up their inner work and self-development programme and continuing to evolve self-awareness!

READINGS

The essence of who you are and how your life will unfold is written in the language of the universe – numbers. Your name, date of birth, significant places in your life all denote a pattern and tell the story of your soul, your destiny and your sacred purpose and weave through the fabric of your being. Understanding your own numbers, master numbers and how to align to universal energies is a potent key to a happy, healthy and sustainable life in the new paradigm as we transverse the shift of the ages.

Dr. Swan's readings are astute and extraordinarily insightful. As a rare key-holder to the Akashic Realm she can access the records of the Universe, read life energies beyond 3d space and time to get an eagle's eye overview and life/soul map for the client. Furthermore she has powerful and direct guidance from the very tangible presence she experiences of both Yeshua and Mary Magdalene who convey through her what the client needs to know and what best will serve. As an ambassadress of the Divine Realm her messages are accurate and poignant. Whilst not always the easiest route is recommended, this guidance works if you work it.
